

CEDI*Povos Indígenas no BrasilFonte: LATClass.: R2Data: 11/03/73

Pg.: _____

---

President Emilio Garrastazu Medici of Brazil has signed a decree creating a temporary reservation of 3,000 square miles for the giant Krenakarore Indians, the latest savage tribe to have been contacted by Indian expert Orlando Villa Boas. Boas said the move would be "the salvation of the last primitive civilization in Brazil and perhaps the world." The area will be out of bounds to all but the National Indian Foundation.